Child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPS.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this lettly day of April, 1897.

HENRY KARIS,

Notary Public in and for Eric Co., N.Y.

Thousands of men and women havefound Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and months old baby, which was sick and puny most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well, take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

derive great benefit from thom.

Mrs. G. A. Crotsley. 588 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's
Dyspopsia Tablets just fill the bill for child dren as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'Tablets' and she drops everything elso and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these Tablets that she went before the notary public of Eric Co., N. Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets
